Sir:

Prior to the first Examiner's Action for the above-identified patent application, please amend the application as follows:

In the Claims:

Please add the following new claims 11-23:

11. A facsimile communication system, comprising a fax-to-email network including at least a sender-side at which an image on paper is received by said network and a receiver side from which an email message is accessible to an email user, and a bifurcated interface at the sender-side.

The facsimile communication system of claim 11, and said sender-side including a fax function selectively generating a facsimile from an image on paper, and said bifurcated interface including a host portion and a traveler portion selectively communicating with said host portion, said host portion being connected to said fax function and said traveler portion being portable.
